GOES TO THE COAST.—Sister M. Vincentia, who has been a teacher in the Indian school at the Salt River agency for several years, went to Los Angeles last night.

TO SPEND THE WINTER.—Mrs. Olive E. Weston and daughter, Mrs. Warren McArthur of Chicago arrived yesterday to spend the winter at the ranch of Charles McArthur.

MARRIED THURSDAY.—Albert E. Ruff and Miss Clara L. Burnas were married at the home of Probate Judge Phillips Thursday evening. The groom is a native of Arizona, while the bride comes from Washington.

GOING TO TUCSON.—His many Phoenix friends will learn with regret that W. E. Bridgwell who is a representative of the National Biscuit Co., has been transferred to Tucson. He has made many friends here whose best wishes will attend him.

OBV-FERRIS.—Miss Susie Ferris was united in marriage to Seattle Oby, at the residence of Miss Ada Ferris last evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. H. Franklin Bray of the A. M. E. church performed the ceremony. Many friends joined in wishing the newly married much happiness.

SUNDAY LECTURE.—Samuel Cranston Benson, of San Francisco, who spoke at the Savoy Theater last Sunday to men and who gave "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" at the Elks on Friday night, will speak on "socialism" at the new Empress theater Sunday afternoon, January 7 at 4:30. All are freely invited. Both sexes.

FREE METHODIST CHURCH.—Rev. L. G. Lewis of Alameda, Cal., is conducting revival services at the Free Methodist church on East Adams St. The meetings this week have been productive of much good and a number have been converted. That the gospel has not lost its charm is evidenced by the interest manifested in these services. All are cordially invited to attend. Meetings begin promptly at 7:30 P. M. Preaching Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

VISITING BANK EXAMINER.—H. D. Marshall Jr., national bank examiner, is in the city on a pleasure bent; rather he is on the way to his home in El Paso after a visit to Missouri and Kansas. He has been having so good a time he does not care to get back into harness again to soon. He may leave this evening or he may remain over Sunday, as he is not here this time on official business, and it depends on how interesting his many friends here make it for him. Mr. Marshall's official territory is Arizona, New Mexico and western Texas.

Y. M. C. A. EDUCATIONAL WORK.—The second term of the Y. M. C. A. educational classes is now open for enrollment and will cover a period of sixteen weeks. The subjects taught are languages and the commercial branches, including stenography and typewriting. The classes are intended primarily for men and boys who are working during the day and who wish to fit themselves for better positions. The instructors are of the very highest order and include Donald A. Fraser, Spanish teacher, who was born and raised in a Latin country and teaches conversational Spanish in a masterly manner, and Professor C. L. Michael, of the high school, who is handling the commercial department. Any boy or man who wishes to improve his spare moments should look into this association school at once.

A MEN'S MEETING.—The Y. M. C. A. men's meeting at the Savoy theater tomorrow afternoon at 4:30, will be addressed by Rev. W. R. Thornton, pastor of the Central Methodist church. His subject is "Who is the Winner, Christ or Satan?" The Indian School band will again furnish the music. A cordial invitation is extended to all men of the city and especially to strangers. There is no charge for admission, but a collection is taken each Sunday to help defray the expense of the band. This address will be one that will be exceedingly helpful and interesting and should draw a large house.

"FARMER" JIM.—James Walden is in the city on a visit to his wife and numerous Phoenix friends. Mr. Walden was a long time resident of Phoenix, in the service of the Southern Pacific and left here a few years ago for coast service. He now holds a good position in San Francisco even though it is down a few notches from the presidency. When he lived here Mr. Walden earned fame as "Farmer Jim" through his stunts with the local team on the baseball diamond.

NEW AUCTION HOUSE.—F. A. Hough and A. R. Taylor have opened an auction house at 215 West Washington street. Mr. Hough is a well known business man of the city having been engaged in the furniture business here for the last five years during which time he has earned an enviable reputation for honesty and fair dealing. Mr. Taylor came here from Nebraska several months ago and is an auctioneer of more than ordinary ability having followed that line of endeavor for more than twenty years, making a specialty of real estate auctions.

TELEPHONE ROUTE TO MATRIMONY.—When Isaac T. Stoddard read yesterday morning of how the Home-builders association had resolved itself into a matrimonial agency he announced that the Overland Telephone company is also figuring on establishing a matrimonial department. Since he became the president of the company a few months ago about a half dozen of the company's employees have drifted into wedlock. First was the assistant wire chief, then came three men from Chicago and one or two since then, all getting married as soon as they became affiliated with the company and saw its promise of prosperity. Mr. Stoddard says his patronage is bound to grow if only by the placing of new 'phones in the homes of employees as fast as they get married.
